Situation

Francis Stuart Estate Agents are delighted to bring this well-presented two-bedroom apartment to the rental market. Ideally situated in the heart of the historic market town of Tavistock, this property enjoys a fantastic central location just a short stroll from the town's shops, cafés, restaurants and local amenities. Positioned close to the iconic Tavistock Viaduct, residents can enjoy access to the scenic walking and cycling routes that form part of the renowned Drake's Trail, offering beautiful views across the surrounding countryside. The accommodation comprises an entrance hallway, a modern family bathroom, master bedroom, a second single bedroom, which would also make an ideal home office or nursery, and a bright, open-plan lounge/kitchen providing a comfortable and sociable living space. The property further benefits from an allocated parking space, a highly sought-after feature for town centre living. The property is currently undergoing redecoration, including the installation of new carpets, to ensure it is presented to a high standard for its next occupants. Updated photographs will be available shortly once the works have been completed. Tavistock is a thriving UNESCO World Heritage market town located on the edge of Dartmoor National Park. Renowned for its historic Pannier Market, independent shops, excellent schools and vibrant community. Tavistock
